

NOTICE

It has been brought to my notice that certain devotees are currently presenting themselves as spiritual Teachers in the West, saying that I have authorized them and even asked them to teach. This is completely wrong. I have neither encouraged nor them to become spiritual Teachers in my name. Rather I have often warned that the desire to become a Guru is a great obstacle on the spiritual path. Those who are ~~publishing~~ publishing spiritual books, or who are leading public meditation courses, seminars, ~~retreats~~ retreats, Satsangs, etc. are requested not to associate my name with their publications, with their websites, with their public programmes, or with their personal Agents and ~~to~~ as spiritual teachers. Moreover, I have long ago given legal copyrights of all my books and writings to Seeker Trust of which, I am
